Williams, the Evangelist The many friends of this gentleman in this city will read with pleasure the following expo sure of the slanders published concerning him, We copy from the St. Louis letter of "The Igterior" of Chicago of date Feb. 12, 1880 : D. "The all-absorbing topic this week, in Mordy and other religious cices in St. Louis, is the outrageous and almost unparalleled conduct of the Globe Demce at of this city in publishing with details, in talse colors, the abourd story of a lady laboring under some strange halice nation to the effect that she was the abandoned wife of Rev. Mr. Henry F. Williams, a licentiate of one of the presbyteries of Texes (Southern.) who has for some three or four years been aboring successfully as an evangelist in Texas. but who has been employed by Mr. Mordy for several weeks to organize and lead the choir at his public meetings. Mr. Williams is a married man, and his excellent wife usually accompanies and assists him in his work. She has been with him in Sr. Louis al winter, and both are well known and endorsed here. This lady, who labors under the delusion referred to, e'simed that she was married to Mr. Wil iams in 1851, at which time Mr. Williams was not quite four years of age! She says she reegenized him by his voice, etc.; said that they were married in Laxington, and Mr. Williams was never there in his life. She said he had orer been clerk in an cyster house in St. Louis. and Mr. Williams rever was c'erk in any such house. She said her husband's name was Henry T. Williams, while our man's name is Henry F. She sail the father of her bushand was dead, but Mr. Williams' father is living yet. But more than all this the woman admitted when confronted with the evidence that she was mistaken. Now the point of this paragraph is to counteract as far as possible the damage said silly story will work to Mr. Williams. Of course the Chicago and other papers will copy it. It is the kind of story a certain class of papers delight to publish. The correction and refutation followed immediately. The Globe Democrat published it Friday morning. Friday afternoon at four o'cleck, in Library Hall, Dr. Brookes road a well prepared paper reciting all the facts which conclusively proved that not only was there not a word of truth in the story, but that, in the nature of the case, it was impossible, for the reason that Mr. William was born in 1847, and was not quite four years old at the time the story said to married this woman. Not a single statement in the published story was true. Dr. Brook is followed his paper with a speech eloquent with righteous indignation at the inexcusable wickedness of the publication of such a story. Mr. Moody also made a speech, in which he showed that he did not try to shield Mr. Williams, but immdiately made a thorough examigation of the whole affair, and satisfied the woman that she was mistaker. Mr. Moody also made it very clear that he informed the agent of the Globe-Democrat of the result of this lay s ignion; told him that there was not a word of crath to it from beginning to end. and warned him against publishing it. Mr. Moody also stated that the reporter agreed to notify him in case Mr. McCullough, the man aging editor, proposed to publish it, in order that he might see the editor. This promise the reperier failed to keep. At this point the xeitement of the large audience ran high. The indigention against the Globe Democrat was intense, and atheists and infidels united and of Mr. Williams against the Globe Printing Com any for libel and slander, setting damages at $25,000. This suit is endorsed by every miotster in the city so for as heard from. Mr. Williams is a poor man, but he is backed financially in this matter by men who will see him through. It is not alone the case of Mr. Williams-it is not merely the case of every minister in the city, but the case of every man or woman who values charactor and reputation. Paul appealed to Crusar PUTES EXPECTORANT and PHAS, and privileges as a Ruman citizen. Mr. Wilelvertised on the first page of the Cazette, liams and his backers have done the same. These slanderous infidel papers who regard not man nor fear God, must be taught a lesson. They reject with some the kingdom of grace and lose no occasion to secer at Christianity and ring applause from the unwashed rabble, and now let them stand up before their own tribugal -a civil court of justice-and by righteously judged by the laws of a common humanity. They reject mercy, and now let us have justice. Mr. Williams wants no man's money, nor does he sack vengeznes, but the vindication of a principle of right in which every citizen is equally interested. Word just comes that the Globe people have sent for Mr. Moody to propose a compremise on the basis of apology and retrac tion. Mr. Moody should not listen to it for a moment. Such a settlement would be entirely igadequate to meet the case. Manufacturers of lies can easily manufacture apologies. Is the language too strong? Listen. Mr. Moody told the voted bearule with the Christians present for

tist, denouncing the set of publication as in violation of all recognized laws of a free press.

But the case is not to rest here. Prominent attorneys have already entered suit in the pame reporter that Mr. Williams was Thursday night in Alton with his wife, conducting a roligious meeting, and would be down on the morning train. The morning Globe stated that Mr. Williams and wife suddenly left the city for parts unknown, and that Mr. Moody did not know when they went, nor when they would be back. Can any apology ever satisfy that? The whole article was of like spirit and purpose, to damage the work of Mr. Moody in this city. But does not the Globe-Democrat publish Mr. Moody's s rmons? Yes, just as it does anything else it does, for money. But suppose as suggested that a suit would make a change in this respect, and Moody's sermons would not appear in that paper? Is there no other paper? And suppose Moody's sermous wou'd not be published in any paper, it would be entirely too small a consideration in such a question as this. The good to be accomplished by a verdict against the Globe-Democrat in this case is far greater than all the good that could come out of any man's published sermons. Let the suit go on. Grant once that our secular press has this unbridled licease, and you cripple the pul
